This year, Oregon House Representative Alissa Keny-Guyer will be introducing a bill, LC 2777, that will require the Department of Education to review independently funded, scientific studies to make a determination whether radiation emitted from WiFi routers, laptops, and tablets used by schools is biologically harmful or not. This bill is both welcome and long overdue.

WiFi Harm Has Been Known for Decades

Consider this statement by former MI5 military intelligence microwave-weapons expert, Barrie Trower: "Wi-Fi radiation is a weapons frequency. It can only do harm During the 1950s and 1960s, it was realized that microwaves could be used as stealth weapons The Russians beamed the American embassy during the Cold War and it gave everybody working in the embassy (one or more of the following) cancer, breast cancer, leukemia, and it was realized then that low level microwaves were the perfect stealth weapon to be used on dissident groups around the world, because you could make dissident groups sick, give them cancer, change their mental outlook on life without them even knowing they were being radiated ..."
