

RECIPIENTS OF THE 2009 FEDERATION HEALTH FREEDOM HERO AWARD

Scott Tips attended and was one of the main speakers at the Alternative View II event held in London, England during the last weekend in May. Scott's topic was "Codex Alimentarius: Making Sickness Compulsory," which an audience of hundreds heard and received with much interest. Among many other fascinating speakers, Len Horowitz and Ian Crane also spoke. Just prior to Ian Crane's speech wrapping up the event in its final hour, Glenda Davies presented the NHF Health Freedom Hero Award for 2009 to a surprised Ian Crane before the sell-out crowd. The next Alternative View event (AV III) will be held on November 13th-15th, 2009, in Bristol, England.

For his strong support of the Federation, as well as his long-time contribution to our health freedoms, Bill Sardi received the 2009 NHF Health Freedom Hero Award. For the first time since 2001, the NHF presented this award to two separate individuals.
